Page 16 37 - Carney Memorial
The Carney Methodist congregation was first organized in 1839, with a class of eight members, who held their first services in the Carney School House, about one and a quarter miles west of the present church site on the road going north to Fisher. off 322 highway.

The class leader was Elias Harhart and the other members were Mary Harhart, James Fox, John Fisher, Kate Harhart and Ann Butler (colored) and Philip Jones.

The first Preachers were Elijah Coleman and Ruben Peck.

The graves of five people are still discernible on the old Carney farm, near where the school house stood and close by the road that leads to Fisher. about a mile north of route 322.

June 14, 1849 Philip Jones is listed as Class leader with a membership of thirty-eight persons.

Services were held in the Carney School House on the Carney farm for a total of twenty years.

The graves near the road are Andrew Carney died August 10 - 1855 age 70 years.
Barbara E. Carney died January 20, 1862 age 75 years.

Three small graves marked with field stones.

Five graves in this small cemetery. Two with grave stones or markers.

Then in May 24, 1858 - John Jones Sr.
transferred by deed 150 perches
of land to William Mendenhall.

David Glenn, George Kahle, John
Jones Jr. and Philip Jones, - Trustees.

This land was to be used for a "Church building and Cemetery" and for no other purpose.

John Jones Sr. came from England in 1818
to his tract in Armstrong County, Pa.

This was the beginning of the beautiful
Ashby Cemetery; in 1858 - since then there has been additions added North side and West end.

The Ashby Meeting House as it was then called was completed in 1859 and regular services were commenced.

This building was remodelled once and Ashby had a nice small church.

Then in 1955 this building was moved down by the road and the ground where the church stood was used as a parking lot for cars.

A new Church edifice was built across the road (much larger) on lands of Russell Elder. - So was another old landmark.

Taken partly from the Ashby records and
mine. Mrs B. J. Son.

Roll John born Jan 12, 1755 in Penna died
Jan. 15, 1816

In March 1957 I (Mrs Paul Ford Miller)
received a letter from Miss March M = Farlin of Watchita, Okla. asking me if I could tell her if her ancestor John Roll of a Rev. war return was buried here in the oldest bury-terian Cemetery in Union County, and did he have a marker, he died in 1816. Was a private in the Seventh Co., Eight Batt,

American Ex. Penn. Under Capt. Robert Mearns.

After much search, and some correspondence with Mr. Theo. G. Watson at the Alleghense Club Bldg. we found he had no marker.

I contacted the Veterans at Clarion and the Government, and they furnished the marker
and Miss M<sup>rs</sup> Fadden paid for having it set in the Cemetery in his honor.

Sam M<sup>rs</sup> Miller placed it working for the Clarion Granite Co. Nov. 12, 1957 - 145 years after his death; she is a D.A.R. No. 414337
and distant relative of him. John Roll gr.
married Mary Thompson, daughter married
Philip Clover gr. son John Roll Clover married Mary Milligan daughter Letitia M. Clover married William W. Graham - Grand daughter of Maude A. M<sup>rs</sup> Fadden, who had marker placed in the Cedar Cemetery.

I spent a couple of days in this Cedar Cemetery in the fall of 1959 copying names
on markers.

It was a very desolate place, dust William and wild roses trying to push up from under the fallen limbs and growing over the fallen down tombstones.

Two magnificent oak trees, that looked as if they had been there when the first grave
was made, reached gnarled branches far out to shield these first pioneers as they slumbered peacefully their last sleep.

The dew rose from between the stones of a grave and looked at me, then slowly walked away birds twittered in the trees as the sunlight filtered through, it was a very peaceful and such a neglected place to be in - a cemetery taken over by the forest again as it was in the beginning - only one group of graves showed any signs of care, those of Mr. Theo Wilson's relatives in the south eastern part of Wooded Cemetery. What a shame to see all this brush and neglect.

I had taken paper and pencil with me and I began to clear moss from the tombstones to take down the names inscribed, where time and the elements had not obliterated them. - I copied around seventy names and I will not say all letters I am correct as some of the letters had chipped off in the course of time.

As I worked; I thought what a serene place to sleep for those early settlers of 1801 after a life of hardship and toil most of these people had endured.

After some correspondence with Mr. Theo Wilson before he passed away; he left an annuity with Mr. Baldwin at the bank; to have this Historic old neglected Cemetery taken care of and reclaimed from the brush, and briars. (Thanks Mr. Wilson)

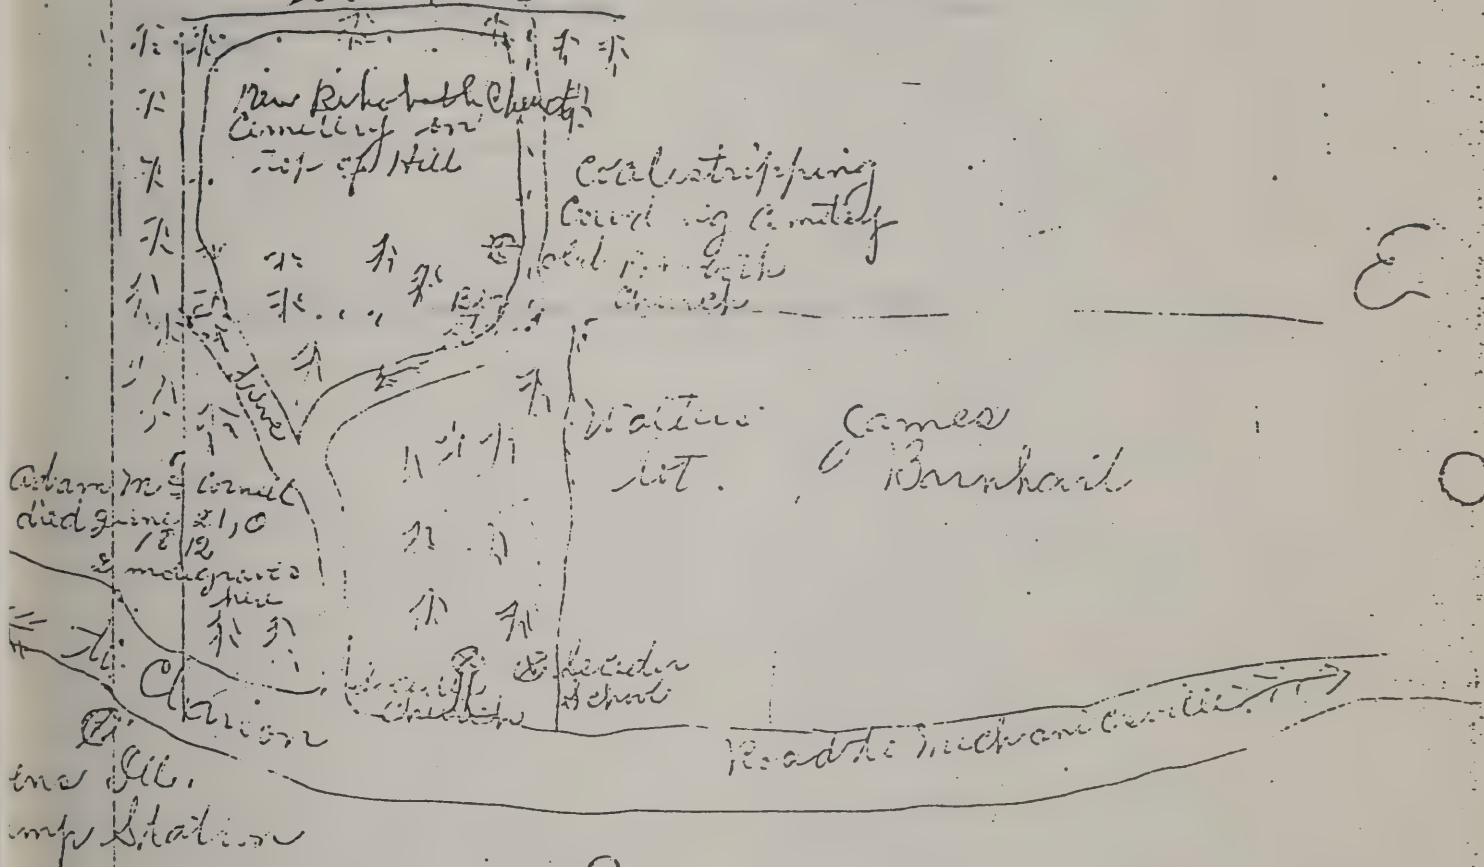

It is now possible to drive up through the woods to the Cemetery, it hardly seems the same place that I first visited in 1959 to find a couple of Colonial graves for a friend.

And took pictures of Mr. Maugh Mr. Fadden.
 At least this old historic cemetery will be available to the public. I have heard the remark so often.

"Why, I did not know there was a cemetery up there in the woods!"
